Nord Franche-Comté, land of industrial solutions

Nord Franche-Comté is :

- 300 000 inhabitants
- 2 urban areas around Belfort and Montbéliard
- 21% of industrial employment (12% on a national level)
- A basin of 100 million europeans within a radius of 400 km

In the bosom of the first French industrial region, Nord Franche-Comté concentrates emblematic companies such as PSA Peugeot-Citroën, Alstom, General Electric and Faurecia, but also a whole myriad of small and medium industrial enterprises that combine innovation and responsiveness.

International by nature, Nord Franche-Comté is neighbouring Switzerland, in close proximity with Germany and near Italy.

Around Belfort and Montbéliard, its two main human-sized cities, Nord Franche-Comté is liked both by its inhabitants and its entrepreneurs and investors.
